Supervisors debate county road systems

Moderator Montjoy backs unit

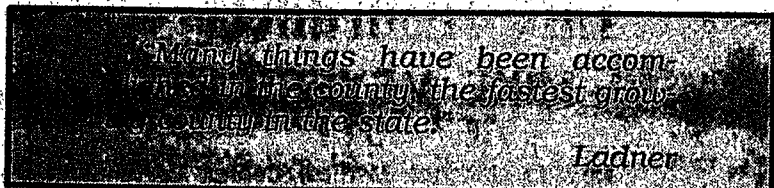

BY JACQUI COCHRAN
Diamondhead residents heard opposing views on returning to the beat system of county government Thursday night in a Community Association-sponsored

The debate included District 5 supervisor Mike Ladner, who said he believed the unit system is working favorably in Hancock County, and District 3 supervisor Howard Lizana, who claimed to prefer the beat sys-

"Things are more complex now than they were 10, 15 years ago. The supervisor, I feel, does not have the time to go out at 6 o'clock in the morning to run a road crew. We have other things to do. We have economic development, we have other...just dozens of things we are looked for to take care of, and the paperwork has increased tremendously."

Lizana countered Ladner with: "I personally feel like I am a hard worker and I can take my fifth of the money (in the budget) and I can keep it in the district. I feel I could do more, and when I want to, but that is just an opinion now...the unit system, like Mike says, is work-forum. Following statements by two supervisors, moderator Paul Montjoy, president of the Diamondhead Property Owners Association, spoke at length on the benefits of the unit system.

tem but said he would work under either. Ladner supported his position by stating, "Many things have been accomplished in the county, the fastest growing county in the state."

Teachers needed to man homework hotline

BY JANET MCQUEEN
When Our Lady Academy science teacher Theresa Braud proposed the idea of a "Homework Hotline" to assist local students, she just knew dozens of teachers would offer to give up one night every two-three months to volunteer.

Wrong. The hotline will be operational Monday, and aside from five of Braud's fellow teachers at OLA, only two from the Bay-Waveland community have offered their assistance.

Students countywide in grades kindergarten through 12 will be able to contact a teacher nightly from 4 until 8 by calling the hotline number, 467-2157.

"The hotline is designed to provide short answers or explanations. A list of specialty teachers (calculus, computer science, etc.) will be available to each teacher answering the telephone if he/she is unable to help," said Braud.

The Exchange Club of Hancock County is paying for the hotline's installation and monthly service charges. Call forwarding will be used to direct calls to the teacher on duty from the phone line at Our Lady Academy.

Hancock Bank has offered to pay advertising costs, and NAVOCEANO naval officers at Stennis Space Center have volunteered to answer the line if there is a shortage of teachers.

Teachers, active or retired, interested in helping with the project may call Braud at 467-2446 after 4:30 p.m.

County okays care center payment plan

BY TRACI BONNEY

The board of supervisors approved a one-year extension on the Bay St. Louis Residential Care Center's payments to the county, and accepted the implementation of a $3,000-per-month bank draft from the care center's account.

Care center administrator Chris Cheek met with the board Friday and told them the bank draft had been approved and set up, and that the care center's refinancing proposal to Hancock Bank is under review at the moment.

The four board members present (Alton "Dolph" Kellar is recovering from a heart attack) unanimously approved Cheek's proposal.

The supervisors also took under advisement bids for uninterrupted power service for the tax collector's office, to better serve that office's computer system, and painting/restoration work on the courthouse.

What was one of the board's accepted for filing two proposals, from ECO Waste and BFI for solid waste collection. The ECO Waste proposal included disposal; the BFI proposal did not.

The supervisors recessed to 9 a.m. Monday.

Traveling the path of God

Fr. Ken Hamilton bids farewell to St. Rose de Lima

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Slightly over three years ago, a still young, African-American priest accepted a temporary appointment as pastor of St. Rose de Lima Catholic Church in Bay St. Louis.

According to Father Ken Hamilton, 38, this was a time of personal doubts.

"I was very much on the edge in terms of my own ministry," he commented in retrospect. "I was very much wondering about the future and confused. I was dealing with a lot of emotions."

"What St. Rose has done for me, is to give me a focus."

"When you see where you have failed and where you have succeeded, you get a sense of what to leave alone and what to continue."

"My time at St. Rose has helped me to grow maturity-wise as a man, and also as a Christian."

Father Ken, as he is lovingly called by parishioners and others, will be leaving St. Rose de Lima on November 2 for a new assignment with The Society of the Divine Word in Atlanta, Ga.

He and two other priests, brothers Charles and Chester Smith, will establish an intentional community.

"An intentional community is a community that comes together, not because your superiors assign you, but because you have something that you intentionally want to do together, and you have a similar vision," Hamilton explained.

This vision, he continued, is in the context of working within the African-American community. Here the three priests intend to begin boyhood to manhood programs, general youth center programs, Bible study programs, all geared toward liberation, an attempt to empower people to take over their own churches and their own lives.

He added the type of work the three priests will be doing may involve some street ministry. "By street ministry I don't mean street preaching," he said, "I mean like grassroots organizing, community organizing, things like that."

"The Society of the Divine Word is a missionary order. To me, being a missionary does not mean you must have to travel to another country. You can break open barriers in your own land. It is like being on the cutting edge, wherever the gospel needs to be preached."

"There is so much going on in Atlanta. We know it has one of the highest crime rates in the country."

"We are not naive to that, that fact. We are going to take care of ourselves."

"I grew up in the city and both Charlie and Chester grew up in the projects of Chicago, so we are not naive about the city or its dangers, and we will be working mostly in the church structure."

"I go very enriched," Hamilton.

"We will be doing things like attending meetings. We are not going to walk through the projects as a specific form of ministry, but you know, once you are known in the projects, it is like any other place."

"Once you are known, you are protected by the people there. There are loving people there, too."

According to Fr. Ken, "There are no words I can find to express how much St. Rose has given to me. I feel like a thief leaving Bay St. Louis. You come in and receive all this affirmation and blessing."

"Anytime you succeed at any job you really take more out of it than you put in. I see my time here as a school, or more accurately, a time of nurturing."

While at St. Rose, Fr. Ken developed the concept of "Re-rooting and Re-routing in Christ."

It began with the renovation of the physical church. Local craftsmen volunteered to do the carpentry, electrical work and painting, while artist Ellsworth Collins and his assistants worked with Fr. Ken to interpret his ideas for the altar.

The altar base is fashioned from a piece of driftwood that had washed ashore near St. Stanislaus College and is set so the roots seemingly reach for heaven. The altar top is made of rough-hewn planks glued together, then cut to roughly conform to the general outline of the base. The tabernacle stand, the ambo and the table for the water and wine are also made from trees found in the Bay area.

The focal point of the renovation is a mural on the rear and side walls of the sanctuary.

The mural's artist, Ausekhis Ozols, described it as "a mural which represents both the Crucifixion and Resurrection."

"The figure of Christ floats, free of bonds and burdens of this earth," before a

Card of Thanks

To all the special people in Bay St. Louis, who had a part in saving the life of my husband, Lewis, from his near death experience, a very heartfelt thank you.

On August 8, while fishing the pier at the end of Washington Street, he had a heart attack. Thanks for the very swift and efficient thinking of Robert Davis in recognizing what was happening. He had a young man contact 911, and with the expert services of police officers Jeff Hair, Badge 19, and Dave Selier, Badge 22, and the Mobile Medic Ambulance Service team of Mr. Kinsey, the ambulance driver, and Mr. Pontius, the ambulance attendant, my husband Lewis arrived at Hancock Medical Center in a matter of minutes, where he was received and treated with excellent care and attention throughout his hospital stay.

A special thanks to Dr. Bert Chevis and his colleagues for the outstanding care they gave my husband, along with the professionalism of all the nursing staff, also for all their love and patience in caring for my husband and the hospitality shown to me and the family.

We also have a special thank you to the cardiovascular team of Drs. Michael Finn, Anthony Morales Jr. and Thomas Lehman from the Northshore Cardiac Clinic in Slidell. Thank you all from the bottom of my heart. You are truly wonderful people in Bay St. Louis.

Thank you again,
 Mrs. Lewis D. Newberry

'Celebrate the Gulf' observes second year

Steve Hardin, executive director of the Coast Chamber of Commerce, announced recently that the second Annual Celebrate the Gulf boat parade and festival will be Saturday, Oct. 24, 9 a.m.-6 p.m., at the Pass Christian Harbor.

The celebration will include a marine education festival and a Year of the Gulf boat parade. (President Bush and Congress have declared 1992 the Year of the Gulf of Mexico.)

Public relations chairman Jim Henrie said the declaration and the Celebrate the Gulf festival serve to heighten awareness of the Gulf's value.

"Our goal is to raise people's consciousness of and appreciation for the resources of the Gulf. We want everyone to realize the Gulf has something for everybody, from food to recreation, from fun to livelihood."

To honor the Year of the Gulf, a colorful boat parade will be part of this year's activities. The water-borne gala, beginning at 11:30 a.m. with a Coast Guard Sea-Air Rescue demonstration, will feature an extensive range of craft that frequent the Gulf's waters: oyster skiffs, shrimp boats, schooners, tugs, research vessels and hover craft.

In addition, more than 40 national, regional and local organizations will display exhibits of their ecological activities relating to marine wildlife, rivers, streams, estuaries and the Gulf.

Exhibits range from in-depth, high-tech presentations to playful, hands-on displays.

As an added feature, Mississippi Power Company has joined Mississippi State University in sponsoring a redfish fingerling release for children.

Special activities have been planned for all age groups, including a "Celebrate the Gulf" art contest that has more than 6,000 school children participating from the three coastal counties. Winning entries from the three counties will be on display.

Other activities include a festival of foods, calling attention to the Gulf's bounty. Lively music and lots of food will be offered, and a variety of boats will be available for viewing and boarding throughout the day.

Festival day trolleys will ferry visitors to downtown Pass Christian, where stores and restaurants have planned special events.

All festival activities are free to the public.

Waveland woman receives suspended bigamy sentence

An attempt to have a marriage nullified instead resulted in a bigamy indictment for a Waveland woman.

Melissa Bullock, 22, now of Waveland, was fined $500 and given a suspended two-year prison sentence and five-year probation last week in Pike County Circuit Court for marrying two men in two days in 1991.

According to an Associated Press story, she married Truman Fourroux of Waltham County on November 2, 1991, and Michael Lowe of Pike County on November 4.

She entered a guilty plea to the bigamy charge, but her attorney, Bruce Thompson, claimed she made the plea on his advice and he has since found reason for her to withdraw the plea.

Thompson claimed that since the second marriage was annulled, it never legally existed. He further argued that Bullock, acting on bad advice, believed her first marriage was not binding when she was married the second time.

Assistant district attorney Danny Smith, on the other hand, said that the state was required only to show that Bullock was already married when she entered the second marriage.

Although Bullock is on probation for five years, she will have to report to a probation officer for only one year, the AP article stated.

Caldwell seeks Dist. 2 election commissioner seat

Russell Caldwell announces his candidacy for District 2 election commissioner. Caldwell lives at 401 Edwards Street, Waveland, and is the owner/operator of Caldwell Grocery in Waveland.

He has been very active in civic affairs for a number of years, including running for county supervisor in 1991.

His decision to run for election commissioner was influenced by the many people who told him they were concerned about losing their votes. Caldwell feels a person's vote is among the most sacred things he has, and he will work hard to see that every vote gets counted in fair, honest elections.

Kasper seeks District 3 post

James J. "Jim" Kasper of Diamondhead has qualified as a candidate for Hancock County District 3 Election Commissioner.

Kasper, a member of the Hancock County Republican Club, recently participated in a voter registration drive that encouraged residents to share in the electoral process regardless of political affiliation. Approximately 198 new voters were registered with 96 Diamondhead residents included in that number.

For the past six years, Kasper has worked as the bailiff and receiving manager in Republican primary elections at either North Bay West or Dedeaux voting precinct.

Kasper is the retired manager of transportation for a NYSE company with major manufacturing facilities in Jackson and Canton.

He has worked as a volunteer for the Hancock County chapter of the American Heart Association, and is a member of the Diamondhead Men's Golf Association.

tion, the Diamondhead Community Association and the Krew of Diamondhead. He also holds membership in the Kiln Memorial Post of the VFW and in AARP.

The State of Mississippi requires that each election commissioner obtain a certificate from the Secretary of State indicating that he or she has received elections training seminar instruction and is qualified to conduct an election. Kasper said he will do so if elected to the commission.

WLOX Television anchor Jeff Lawson will moderate a one-hour 5th District Congressional debate between Democrat Gene Taylor, Republican Paul Harvey and Independent Shawn O'Hara.

Panelists for the debate are WLOX-TV's political reporter Brad Kessie, "Newswatch This Week" co-host and WLOX-TV's assignment editor Doug Walker, and WLOX-TV's anchor/reporter Rhonda Weidner.

The televised debate will begin at 8 p.m.

'Larry' Peterson runs for county school board

L.J. "Larry" Peterson has announced his candidacy for Hancock County school board, District 1.

A lifelong resident of Hancock County, he is the son of Lillian Green Garcia of Clermont Harbor and the late Lawrence Peterson.

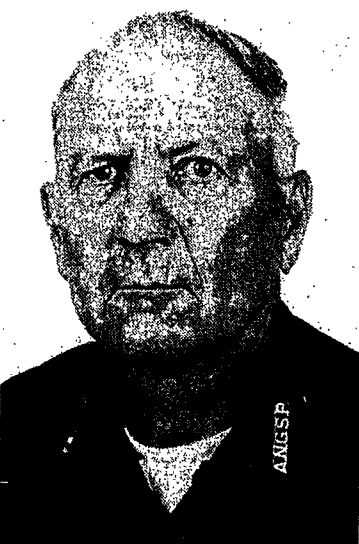

He is married to the former Doris Ramond. They have four children: Larry Jr., Darrell, Theresa and Dwayne; and six grandchildren, two of whom attend Gulfview Elementary.

Peterson is a constable with the State of Mississippi at the Air National Guard base in Gulfport.

He stated, "I have a sincere interest in the education of all the children of Hancock County, and I will see that all money allotted for education is properly handled for the good of all the students of our school district."

"Between now and November 3, I will try to see as many of the voters in my district as possible by going door to door and answering any questions the voters might have regarding my candidacy."

'Larry' Peterson

Lee seeks Dist.2 board seat

Veterinarian Dr. Michael Lee of Leetown Community has announced his candidacy for the Hancock County School Board, District 2.

Lee, the owner of Lee Animal Clinic in Kiln, is a 1980 graduate of Hancock North Central High School. He attended Pearl River Junior College and is a graduate of Mississippi State University. He earned a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree in 1988 from MSU College of Veterinary Medicine.

He is married to the former Shelly Dedeaux and has two children, Randa, 3, and Renee, three months. He is the son of David and Pat Lee of Leetown and the grandson of Oliver and Bernice Seal of Catahoula.

Lee is a member of the Mississippi Quarter Horse Association, the American, Mississippi and Louisiana Veterinary Medical Associations; American

Dr. Michael Lee

Association of Equine Practitioners; North Hancock Business Owners Association; Professional Kennel Club; and lifetime member of the American Quarter Horse Association.

"As a graduate of the Hancock County school system, and after attending some of our institutions of higher learning, I realize both the strengths and weaknesses of the county's school system."

"With my educational experience, I hope to help strengthen the system and prepare our children for the future."

"Extracurricular activities are an important adjunct to any child's education. These programs, such as band, sports, cheerleading, etc., need to be emphasized and funded to encourage a well-balanced education for our students."

"I plan to work closely with the county superintendent and other board members to keep a balanced budget for the school system and to provide the best educational environment for our students," Lee said.

Hill seeks Dist. 2 school board seat

Kevin O'Brien Hill Sr. is a candidate for Hancock County School Board District 2.

Hill is a lifelong resident of Hancock County, graduate of Hancock High School and employed at Bay Technical Associates in Bay St. Louis.

He is married to the former Deborah Jackson and is the father of two sons, one of which is a student at Charles B. Murphy Elementary School.

Hill believes in a solid educational foundation for all children. He feels that students of all ages who cannot function successfully in the regular classroom must be provided a strong alternative educational program.

Hill will strive for progressive changes, strong parental involvement, sound and honorable leadership and excellent educational programs.

"QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

In case you haven't as yet, you still have an opportunity to recycle your old telephone book.

There is a collection bin next to the Hancock Chamber of Commerce's office, Colonial Plaza, (next to Peoples Bank), Bay St. Louis.

This is an effort promoted by South Central Bell, BFI, and the chamber's beautification committee, in conjunction with the Harrison County beautification committee.

The thing that amazes me is that one ton of recycled telephone books saves some 3.3 cubic yards of landfill space.

I need not remind you of the importance of saving space in our landfills which are already overflowing.

Please put telephone books only the dumpster, thanks.

You may want to plan now on attending the Hancock Medical Center's Open House for the Obstetrics Department (Nursery), next Saturday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Since the arrival of Dr. Dimitri Yanez, the county's new obstetrician/gynecologist, the nursery has reopened and is now in operation.

Extensive renovations have been done in the Obstetrics Department at Hancock Medical, and this will be a good opportunity for the public to view the changes.

I hope to see you next Saturday at the Open House.

I realize it is a bit early, but it will be time to change the clock once again next Sunday.

I feel they should let the time alone, and I have a feeling there are a lot others like I am.

Since this is the fall, we will have to set our clocks back one hour next Saturday night.

I really prefer more time in the evenings. One of the reasons for changing the time I am told, is so that it is daylight for children going to school.

By the way, students used miner's lights in Alaska, as part of their dress for school.

Have you heard about the latest cookoff?

Well, it is the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club's Chili Cookoff scheduled for Saturday, November 7.

It sounds like it will be an interesting function. As a matter of fact, I volunteered Jane to be one of the chefs, as there will be a dozen of them.

Jane is already collecting her 'secret' ingredients and figuring out the formulas of how much of everything to use to cook four gallons.

Normally she just fixes enough for about four to six people.

There will be a donation of only $3 for the chili for this fund-raiser and one will be able to eat as much as he wants.

The Bay Rotary Club will use the proceeds from this event for their many community projects.

I understand there will be a dozen 'chefs' to select a winner from.

I would suggest to motorists traveling Interstate 10 West from Hancock County to give themselves a little extra time starting Monday.

Work is scheduled to begin on the removal of the steel grids at the center of the Pearl River bridge.

The eastbound lane will be the first one closed, so this means both east and west traffic will be using the same lane.

This work is estimated to take some four months, two months for each lane.

I know there are those who will be glad to see the old steel grids go, as they were hard to travel on, especially during and after a rain.

Many accidents have occurred on the Pearl River bridge, and I have been told they were mostly in the area of the steel grids.

Motorists are also asked to slow down while crossing the bridge for the safety of the construction workers.

Loads 10-feet and over will be re-routed along Highway 604, 43 and I-10/L-59.

This will mean more highway traffic in the Pearl River and Kiln areas.

Anti-litter hotlines set up in Bay, county

Hotlines have been implemented for people in Bay St. Louis and outside the city limits to call if they see someone toss trash out of a vehicle.

If you see someone do this, memorize or write down the vehicle's license number and call the appropriate hotline number. A recording will instruct you as to how to report the violation.

After the vehicle registration is traced, a letter will be sent by the appropriate authority to the vehicle owner. The letter does not accuse the vehicle owner of throwing the trash, but states that an occupant of a vehicle which is or was owned by that person was seen throwing trash out of the vehicle.

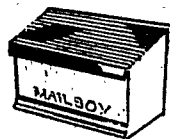

The letter states that no charges are being filed at the time the letter is issued, but also reminds the person that littering is illegal and carries a $250 fine.

The numbers to call are 255-6284 for a violation witnessed in Bay St. Louis, and 255-6246 for one witnessed in the county.

Walk-America

Hundreds of walkers participated in the annual Hancock County March of Dimes Walk-America Saturday from the Bay St. Louis bridge to Buccaneer State Park, Waveland. Individuals, school groups, business and industry groups participated. Betsy Ashman was chairman for the March of Dimes fund-raiser. (Echo staff photo by Ellis Cuevas)

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Garbage fee was planned, Waveland resident believes

To the Editor:

Some remarks are in order regarding the City Council meeting which dealt with the garbage collection fee in Waveland. It is obvious that Mayor Stella Friot thinks Waveland citizens are mostly non-thinkers like some aldermen.

For 25 years I was involved in municipal finance, including budgeting, and in all those years I never saw a budget that contained line items where there was no intent to implement them.

After the organized protest the mayor and two aldermen tried to explain that they didn't really mean what they had previously approved.

As part of her explanation the Mayor lectured her audience on the principles of municipal accounting and budgeting. To anyone with expertise in the subjects, it was obvious that she didn't have the faintest idea of what she was talking about.

Great thanks are due Alderman Weidman and some alert citizens that this grab at our pockets was stopped before it could be sneaked over on us. It is a prime example of the old expression that "the price of liberty is eternal vigilance." The tragedy of the situation is that apparently we have to put up with two more years of this nonsense.

Traffic problems on Blue Meadow overlooked

Dear Editor:

As for the Tuesday night Bay Council workshop (and what was printed in the Thursday, Oct. 15 Sea Coast Echo):

All I hear about is the traffic on Felicite Street and how the children are not safe.

What about the children who walk up and down Blue Meadow Road, trying to go to school every day?

I think putting sidewalks on Felicite Street in '93 is great, but what about Blue Meadow? We should have sidewalks right now!

As for the traffic, the speed limit should be 15 mph in front of Bay High School and 25 mph down Blue Meadow Road, just to slow the traffic down.

There will be an accident at the corner of Blue Meadow Road and Casino Magic Road.

As of now, we do not have speed limit signs on Blue Meadow Road except in front of the high school. Felicite has signs all over the street, plus they have signs, 'Children at Play,' and we don't have that!

All I'm saying is that the people on Felicite Street are no better than the people on Blue Meadow Road.

We all pay taxes, and they said that we cannot drive on Felicite Street. I have grandchildren who live down there, and if I can't drive that way to go see them, then why do I pay taxes?

Waveland city employees advised customers of garbage fees

Dear Editor:

I am not a constituent of Alderman Stan Weidman, nor have I been to any Waveland board meetings; however, after reading your article of Oct. 8 on garbage fees, I feel I must comment.

For the board to blame Mr. Weidman for the controversy over the proposed garbage fee is just ridiculous. Before Mr. Weidman's letter appeared in The Sea Coast Echo, city employees in the Water and Gas Department were telling customers this fee would show up on the next bill. Did Mr. Weidman tell the city employees to inform customers of this?

Over-priced health care system riddled with waste

Dear Editor,

More than 100 million Americans have no health insurance and care is beyond their reach?

Our private insurance system has made health care in America the most expensive in the world, with more than $135 billion dollars a year paid in unnecessary overhead, greedy profits and inefficient administrative costs paying more than 1,500 private insurance companies?

Over half of this is wasted on unnecessary paperwork left to the consumer, who is either unable to read, uneducated in business administration or left in a financial bind where he is unable to maintain and/or properly prepare the mountains of paper needed to get health care claims properly adjusted and paid?

More than $200 billion will be squandered this year because our health care system is riddled with waste; grossly over-priced procedures, and inefficient administration? Can you imagine what this waste does to our tax structure, or wasted in paying toward reducing the national debt? This amount alone would pay in taxes toward a better solution!

The United States and South Africa are the only two industrialized nations that do not provide universal health care for their citizens?

It is a myth generated by propaganda of greedy medical, hospital and health care associations in the U.S. that Canada's universal health care system is "socialized medicine," or that patients "have" long waiting

The competitive American worker

A new study reaffirms America's competitiveness in the global marketplace by claiming that the American worker is, on average, the most productive in the world.

The study, conducted by the McKinley Global Institute, found that workers here in the U.S. are at least 11 percent more productive than German workers, and 23 percent more productive than Japanese workers.

The report covers five major industrialized nations: the United States, France, Germany, Japan, and Britain. Approximately three quarters of the American work force was included as a part of the study; workers in government, health, education and real estate were not covered in the report.

There can be no question that, if the study had also focused on the states, it would have found that Mississippi's work force can hold its own against the competition as well.

A quick look at what Mississippians are producing and exporting to the rest of the country and the world offers strong evidence of that fact.

Peavey Electronics in Meridian is internationally recognized as a leader in audio equipment. Northeast Mississippi is the upholstered furniture capital of the country. Several of the country's fastest growing communications companies are headquartered in Jackson. Exports, from cotton to catfish, bolster Mississippi's position in the growing global marketplace.

And, none of the above would be possible without the skills of a work force that is a credit to both our state and our country. Our hat is off to the Mississippi—the American—worker.

huge oak tree, "the Cross...grasping the ground with ample roots yet reaching up towards the heavens..."

"The Tree has witnessed all weathered hurricanes, lost branches, lived through many seasons, human and natural. Famines, plagues and slavery, picnic gatherings and lynch mobs, sorrows and joys have been its lot. Births and deaths, days and nights, love and hate, summers and winters it has known. It is the true Cross."

Walking through St. Rose with Father Ken, it was obvious that he would always be a part of this sanctuary.

His steps were light and energetic as he pointed out individual paintings and hangings. There were saints of every nationality, including Native American.

"We are a multi-cultural congregation now," he reported. "We even have people coming to Mass who are not Catholic." There were wall hangings, the most recent addition a tapestry symbolic of the formation of the Peace and Justice committee, and a wall hanging made by Cindy Acker.

"Things have happened within the community these past months that have been very difficult," Hamilton stated. "But thank goodness, even through the tragedies we have stuck together."

St. Rose de Lima also has a 2-3-4 club, which Hamilton just traveled with to Nassau for a three-day cruise, a farewell gift from his congregation.

"The 2-3-4 club is a Christian socializing group," he explained. "I think Christians should get together and have fun."

"One other group to have been newly formed this year is the third age ministry." This, according to Hamilton, was begun as a means of allowing older community members their own path of participation and contribution.

Fr. Ken, walking past the first five pews in St. Rose, stopped to point out the small brass plate designations. He said, "These are our elder seats. I believe the elders of our community are the most overlooked source of knowledge available to us."

"We set aside these pews just for them, that they may have a place of honor, always."

Fr. Ken spoke with the pride of a parent as his eyes took in every particular contained within the church.

"St. Rose is special," he stated. "The excitement of leaving for something new is balanced out with a deep sense of leaving home. It hurts."

Hamilton said, "You have two choices in this world, you can grow or not grow. Or as my mother would say, you can grow or die."

"This next step in my life is part of a dream we have had for many years. We are going to Atlanta very enriched."

On November 1, Fr. Ken will ceremoniously turn his pastorate over to Francis Teriault, who will then be welcomed with great excitement, Hamilton said.

Teriault is already known to many at St. Rose, for he was an associate pastor for many years prior to Hamilton's appointment.

All are invited to attend the ceremony.

"I have offered my gifts and the people, through their warmth and familyhood and sense of welcome, have accepted them. If I have had some influence, I am not the author of that influence, but I am happy to have been a part."

"I go very enriched."

ing fairly well, but I just feel like I could do better.

"I stated my opinion. I'm not campaigning one way or the other...you, the people, are the ones who will decide whether we stay in the unit system or the beat system."

"Whichever system the people vote in, is the one I'm going to work just as hard for, one way or the other."

Before the supervisors' statements Montjoy briefly described the functions of centralized purchasing and the county administrator as autonomous in either system.

Following their remarks, he made his own statement of support for the unit system, citing many road improvements.

He said the vast majority of counties under the unit system show more money going through to actual products than was going into roads under the beat system.

Montjoy elaborated, "They have a road administrator. He strictly follows a plan set by the supervisors, not himself."

He said should a supervisor go to the road superintendent with a specific problem, the road superintendent would surely see about it.

Montjoy added, "The supervisors hire and fire the road administrator; he serves at their pleasure. They set the budget; they set a four-year plan."

"I think we need to look at what is happening for Diamondhead, for Bay St. Louis, Waveland."

"There are a lot of roads not paved in Hancock County. A lot of them are in subdivisions that should have never been platted to begin with. It is just ludicrous, that they allowed Bayside Park, Shoreline Park, to be platted with no paving, no nothing. If you do pave it and it floods, the paving comes up. So it is just a nightmare of expense."

He spoke on how the supervisors have worked toward trying to decide priority roads.

He cited Diamondhead's example of paving main thoroughfares first as the sensible approach to road development.

"You have to get the through roads done first," he commented, "so it's a matter that this group of supervisors establish priorities in leading the county, as Mike said, and I think Howard agrees, roads are becoming a smaller and smaller portion of the overall county government."

A question and answer period generated one question — "What is the difference between the beat and unit systems?" — which Montjoy answered, and one audience statement in support of the unit system.

Following the debate, approximately 200 people listened to presentations by candidates for:

District 93 House of Representatives — Hilda Bourg; Prima Plaque (speaking for her husband Hester Plaque, who was ill), and Harry Frierson;

Fifth Congressional District — Mrs. Paul Harvey speaking for her husband; lines" and a "lack of proper or adequate medical or scientific procedures needed to care for their people?" Such rumors are false and serve only greedy special interests!

The Canadian federal government does NOT own the hospitals, clinics or medical labs, and the doctors still have their private practices. You can choose your own doctor in Canada or even purchase your own private medical health insurance. The only difference is that everyone is automatically insured and the maze of private insurers is replaced with a single-payer system.

Patients receive no medical bills. Doctors and medical facilities simply bill the government which eliminates the nearly $135 billion in wasteful administration, unnecessary overhead, gross overcharges and excessive profits and paperwork.

Consumer advocate Ralph Nader, with an unblemished record of fighting for benefits for the consumers of America, feels so strongly about this issue that he has launched a National Health Care Campaign to make universal health care a reality in U.S.

If you doubt any of this, just try to enter a hospital or doctor's office with no insurance!

In Canada, health care is rationed on medical need; in this country, health care is rationed based upon ability to pay!

Ursula Ann Oustalet

Perniciaro-Oustalet

Jeanie Dubuisson of Pass Christian and Richard Oustalet of Jennings, La., announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Ursula Ann Oustalet, to Martin Wayne Perniciaro, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nuncy Perniciaro of Waveland.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Jennings High School and McNeese State University. She is a special education teacher at Lacassine High School.

The prospective groom is a graduate of Bay High School. He attended Jefferson Davis Junior College. He is employed with DuPont Chemicals.

Vows will be exchanged Saturday, January 9, 1993, 6:30 p.m., at Our Lady Help of Christians Catholic Church in Jennings.

Naman-Rathle

Little Flower Catholic Church in Mobile, Ala. was the setting for the September 5 marriage of Marcelle Marie Mathilde Rathle and Edmond George Naman. The Rev. Msgr. Timothy Deasy officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henri Amin Rathle. The groom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Louis (Marsha Blaize) Naman of Mobile. His grandparents are Mrs. Edmond (Lillian) Blaize Sr. of Bay St. Louis and the late Mr. Blaize.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white dupione silk adorned with French Alencon lace embellished with tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequins on the elongated bodice. Beaded lace appliques outlined the sweetheart neckline and short butterfly sleeves. The scalloped back repeated the lace motif, while a butterfly peplum accented the back waist and flowed into a chapel length train. Beaded Alencon lace appliques formed a trellis down the sides of the princess skirt and continued around the train.

She wore a headband of tiny seed pearls with an attached veil of silk illusion.

Carole Rathle, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Simone Rathle Enelow of New Orleans; Melissa Lee of Nashville; Marguerite Rathle of Palm Beach; Mrs. Cynthia Rathle, Mrs. Marlene Rathle, Ann Adams, Karen Stokes, Cheryl Callaghan, Katherine Langham, and the groom's sisters, Mrs. Helen Naman Kamel of Memphis; Regina Naman, Andrea Naman and Mrs. Marcia Naman Luckie.

The attendants were identically attired in formal two-piece suits fashioned with short, pleated sleeves enhanced with scattered pearls. Cluster pearls served as buttons for the deep eggplant colored silk faille ensembles.

Hannah Leigh LaFontaine of Bay St. Louis, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a white tea length dress fashioned with a large collar and puffed sleeves edged in eggplant colored embroidery.

Dr. Naman served as his son's best man. Groomsmen were the bride's brothers, Amin Rathle, Henri Rathle, Jean Rathle and Andre Rathle; Gary Blaize of Bay St. Louis, uncle of the groom; Ryan LaFontaine of Bay St. Louis, cousin of the groom; David Kamel, Stuart Luckie, Christopher Naman and David Naman.

Taylor LaFontaine of Bay St. Louis, cousin of the groom, was altar server. Readings from scripture were offered by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Elaine LaFontaine of Bay St. Louis, and Mrs. Rathle of New Orleans.

A reception followed the ceremony at Skyline Country Club in Mobile.

On return from a wedding trip to Acapulco, the couple resides in Montgomery, Ala.

Magnolia Ball

Magnolia Ball-goers bring out their antebellum dress and ready their toes for tapping as they anticipate the November 14 benefit gala sponsored by the Diamondhead Performing Arts Society. The ball is an annual fund raiser for DPAS, enabling the society to offer the Diamondhead area a full season of cultural entertainment for the coming year. Shown at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart are (from left) seated — 1992 ball chairman Neal Hall, co-chairman Delora Diekema and 1991 chairman Carol Eckrich; standing — DPAS board member Gerald Diekema and Frank Gasper. Diamondhead Little Theater stages 'Last of the Class'

Special to the Echo
The Diamondhead Little Theater is in rehearsal for their fall production entitled, 'Last of the Class.' The scheduled performances will be Oct. 21, 22 and 23. Curtain time is 8 p.m. The play is written by Fred Carmichael and directed by Kathleen Fischer.

This play will have you roaring with laughter as two old enemies, Peter and Dudley, played by Roy Aultman and Vermont Smith, are reunited after 40 years to settle an estate.

The two elderly gentlemen have been summoned to a sleazy New York City hotel to dispose of articles left by a deceased classmate. They become involved with Wanda Lust, the stripper about town, played by Sandy Wilson; Jan, a small-town girl from the Midwest, played by Pokey Orr; and Frank Dorski, a small-time gangster, played by Martin Booda.

Gaylord, the bellhop, played by Steve Burtch has an angle on everything and his hand always out. It seems that both Wanda and Frank want something from Peter and Dudley—only they have no idea what, nor where to find it. These two senior citizens get a new lease on life after becoming involved with all these 'Fun City' characters.

Roy Aultman is known for his role as 'Zaza' in 'Le Cage Aux Folles' and Steve Burtch appeared in 'Rumors,' both Bay St. Louis Little Theater productions. Vermont Smith has appeared in Bay St. Louis Little Theater and Center Stage productions.

Martin Booda recently appeared in 'Seven Keys to Baldpate' for Center Stage. For Pokey Orr and Sandy Wilson this is a new venture, local little theater.

Ticket prices are $10 for adults, and $7 for children under 13. Adult ticket price includes one drink. Seating will be theater style—first come, first seated.

For tickets, please send a SASE with your check and indicate which performance date to: Lee Fredian, 5563 Diamondhead Drive East, Diamondhead, MS 39525.

Warriors grind Rocks

BY ELLIS CUEVAS
High school football victory continues to elude an improving, young, spirited St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaw squad this season.

In falling 42-20 to d'Iberville's Warriors, 5-3 and 3-0 in Division VIII Class 4-A, Stanislaus (0-7 for the season) had a number of bright moments — beginning with the first play in the game.

The hosting Rocks kicked off to d'Iberville, and the visitors fumbled on their first play from scrimmage and lost the ball to SSC on the Warriors' 33-yard line. Kirk Edington jumped on the ball.

This break was short-lived, as the Rocks fumbled to d'Iberville on their first play.

d'Iberville played their first team the entire game with the exception of their last series on offense, as Stanislaus continued to be a threat all night. The Rocks' first fumble, along with two others they lost, hurt the offensive effort and scoring potential.

Against d'Iberville's defense, Stanislaus moved the ball with Nathan Middleton playing the entire game at quarterback for the first time this season. The Rocks, up against a much larger and more experienced d'Iberville, moved the ball on the ground and through the air.

"I am very proud of the effort our kids gave. We made turnover mistakes, which probably cost us the ball game. This point spread — I guess it is hard to say that, but if we didn't fumble so much, we might have won it," SSC head coach Ken Lyons said.

In commenting about his team's overall performance, Lyons said, "Our blocking is getting better. All our offensive line did a great job for us."

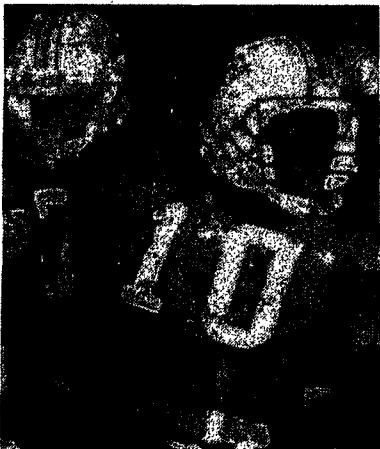

"I thought Stanley Chapman did a good job of running; Brandon Benoit ran hard and did especially good in the pass receiving department; (Jeffrey) Bishop also did an outstanding performance and in addition to playing split end, he is sort of our quarterback on the field and is a valuable player."

The thorn in the Rocks' side was Warrior senior, fullback Joey Chirin, who scored two touchdowns in racking up a total of 158 yards on eight carries.

Stanislaus defensive coordinator Larry Ramsey said, "Going into the game, we knew their veer offense would be tough on us."

"I think we are gaining experience from all of this. Basically, when we played against their second team, we played pretty well."

Ramsey was referring to a point late in the game, when the Rocks' defense shut down d'Iberville's second team on offense.

"We are gaining experience and we don't lay down, but continue going forward. We are young and coming up, and are looking forward to the last three games," Ramsey reported.

d'Iberville scored two touchdowns and led by a 12-0 score at the end of the first quarter.

In second quarter action, on a fourth-and-5, d'Iberville turned the ball over to Stanislaus on the Rock 42-yard line.

After a loss and incomplete pass, a flag moved the ball to the SSC 45.

Middleton gained 3 yards on a keeper. Chapman then rambled 33 yards to the Warrior 38; Benoit went to the 5 on the next play. Two plays later, Chapman moved in for a score from the 4.

With 5:51 left in the second quarter, d'Iberville was leading 12-6.

d'Iberville came back with a two quick scores, giving them a 28-6 margin.

Not to be denied, Rock Scott Emmel returned the ensuing kickoff to the SSC 40.

Chapman moved to d'Iberville's 39, and a penalty on the next play moved the ball to the 42-yard line.

Behind some crisp offensive blocking, sophomore quarterback Middleton tossed a long bomb to Schaffer, who added the Rocks' second score of the game with 33 seconds left in the first half. d'Iberville's lead was now at 28-12.

d'Iberville scored late in the third quarter, moving the margin up to 35-12.

Stanislaus took a gamble on a fourth down and, from a punting formation, centered the ball to Chapman, who picked up a first down on the Warriors' 32-yard line. However, this break also was muffed on a fumble on the next play.

Midway in the fourth quarter, d'Iberville added another score, making it 42-12.

Middleton then engineered a mixture of run pass plays for the Rocks' best drive of the night, moving in for a score in a 10-play series. The score came on Middleton tossing a pass to Benoit for an 18-yard score.

On the kick for the extra point, the ball was snapped to holder Bishop, who stood up and tossed for 2 points to Chapman, making the final score 42-20 in favor of d'Iberville.

Stanislaus will host Pearl River Central next Friday to celebrate homecoming.

You don't have to be.

If you're tired of shelling out good money for road base that doesn't make the grade, switch from shells to something solid. CRUSHED LIMESTONE BASE.

There is a better cover material than shells, and now it's available to you. Crushed Limestone base is a long-lasting material that provides a mud-free surface for driving or walking, that is virtually undisturbed by excessive rainfall and traffic.

So move away from the shell game, and let your "non-paved" surfacing job be like the company that supplies stone base. HERE TO STAY!

Tigers clip Hawks 41-0

BY RANDY PONDER
A tenacious Tiger defense held a potent Hawk offense to just two first downs and only 20 net yards in a 41-0 Bay High victory Friday night in Joe D. McCullough Stadium.

For the third consecutive week, the Tiger offense rolled for more than 40 points. Bay High has outscored their last three opponents by a combined score of 132-6.

The contest got off to a bad start for Hancock when they fumbled the ball returning the opening kick, giving the Tigers possession on the Hawk 21.

Three consecutive handoffs netted only 6 yards to bring up fourth and 4 for Bay High.

Quarterback Sam Sheppard took the snap, rolled out to the right, stopped and fired the ball back across the field to a wide open Xavier Lewis for the Tigers' first touchdown. Shawn Keener booted the extra point through the uprights, putting Bay High on top 7-0 before the Hawks' offense touched the ball.

After the quick score, the first quarter settled down to a defensive duel with neither team mounting anything resembling a drive.

In fact, the only first down in the period was by the Hawks on an 18-yard pass play from quarterback Scotty Davis to Lance Wedgeworth. It was Hancock's longest play of the contest and accounted for one of their two first downs.

The visitors' excitement was short-lived, however, as the Tiger defense stiffened, forcing James Prive to punt the ball back to the Tigers after three plays netted only 2 yards. The ball took a good Hawk roll and was downed at the Hawk 12. Trapped near their own goal, Bay High marched 88 yards on an impressive drive, utilizing six different backs on the eight-play foray into the Hawk end zone.

Larrone Lewis ran for 3 yards before breaking loose for 13 more and a first down to the Tiger 28. Not to be outdone, Leroy Hawkins grabbed a handoff and cut to his right across the field on a big run all the way to the Hawk 47.

Kevin Gillum charged up the middle of the field, fighting and clawing his way for 9 yards. Sheppard picked up the first on a quarterback keeper to the Hancock 32.

Sheppard then stepped back in the pocket and rifled the ball to Gerrit Carver on a pass and run that carried all the way to the Hawk 10.

A handoff to Larrone Lewis moved the ball to the 1. Dwayne Antoine followed with a dive over the line for the points. Keener again added the PAT, as the Tigers built a 14-0 advantage at the 7:33 mark of the second quarter.

Hancock's next possession was three plays and out. Jimmy Strong sacked the Hawk QB for a big loss on third down to force a punt.

With the ball at the Hancock 39, Bay High quickly scored again. Runs by Lewis and Hawkins gained 6 yards, bringing up a third-and-4 for the Tigers and setting up the big-gest play of the drive.

Sheppard rolled out to his left on a quarterback option, pulled up and passed the ball 28 yards to Gus Necaise at the Hawk 5. Antoine got the call and claimed his second TD on a strong run the next play. Kenner tagged on the extra point and the rout was on, 21-0.

Three incomplete passes and punt was the Hawks' ensuing series.

A good punt return by Xavier Lewis gave the Tigers great field position again at the Hancock 30.

The first play of this drive was almost the last as Larrone Lewis took the ball, ran right up the middle, dragging would-be tacklers all the way to the Hawk 9 before he was finally stopped.

Xavier Lewis scored the TD on a pass from Sheppard at the 1:06 mark of the first half. Keener's PAT made the score 28-0.

Hancock enjoyed their best field position of the game early in the third quarter at the Tiger 43 following a punt.

Dennis Malley ran for a short gain before taking a pitchback, cutting around the left end all the way to the Tiger 26.

The drive stalled here and the Tigers took over on downs.

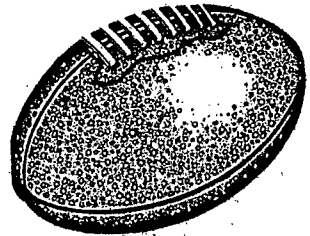

The balance of the third quarter was a draw but as the final period began, the Tigers were once again on the march.

With the football on their own 37, Bay High used big plays to quickly move downfield. Larrone Lewis broke loose for 21 yards and probably would have scored if not for a saving tackle by Joe Green at the Hawk 39.

Several plays later Xavier Lewis rambled for 20 tough yards on a run right smack through the middle of the Hawk defense to the Hancock 8. The other Lewis, Larrone, got the points on another run up the gut. Although the PAT was blocked, Bay High had built a commanding 34-0 lead.

L.C. Curry ended Hancock's next possession with a pass interception. The Tigers could not advance and punted the ball away after three plays resulted in a 4-yard loss.

Hancock again turned the ball over on a miscue. This time it resulted in a Tiger touchdown as Jeff Hopgood scooped up a fumble and returned it for a TD.

Gus Necaise pulls in pass.

Keener finished the scoring with his sixth extra point for a final score of 41-0.

"We just couldn't block them," Hancock coach Irvin Favre stated. "They did what they had to do to win. Bay High has a real good group, the best they've had in years."

"We jumped on them early and got some breaks," Tiger coach Rocky Gaudin said after the game. "Our defense is playing very good. This is our field. One of our goals is to win all our home games."

The Tigers improved their record to 6-1 while the Hawks drop to 2-5.

Bay High will travel to Perry Central next week in an important District 8, Class 3-A matchup. Hancock will entertain Picaune for homecoming. Both contests will start at 7:30 p.m.

Hawks, Tigers split wins

The Hancock Hawks and Bay High Tigers split wins Thursday as the 7/8 grade Hawks won the evening's first contest and the 9th grade Tigers took the second.

Hawk coach Andy Perniciaro said the 7/8 grade Hawks scored 30 points to the Tigers' 12 on touchdown runs by Jimmy Jones (70 yards and 5 yards), Mike Fountain (a 77-yard kickoff return) and Josh Davis (20 yards). Extra points were added by Jones and Chad Peterson.

In the 9th grade match, the Tigers came out on top with 12 points to the Hawks' 6. J.J. Hay scored the sole Hancock TD on a 59-yard pass reception from quarterback Carl Gibson.

The Hawks' next games are Thursday at Picaune. Kickoff times are 5:30 and 7 p.m.

Lakeshore wins two

BY JACQUI COCHRAN
The Lakeshore Bulldogs defeated both the Bay St. Louis Cowboys and Pearl River Central in an 11/12-year-old Mississippi South Youth Football Conference jamboree Saturday, October 10.

The undefeated Cowboys dominated the first half of the game, leading 0-13, until the Bulldogs dug in to score 26 points before the final whistle, walking away with the 26-13 victory.

Bulldog coach Rene Baum said, "The victory against the Cowboys was sweet for the team, as the Cowboys defeated us during our first match of the season."

Darrell Williams and John Woods carried the ball for two touchdowns, and Jeremy Lee capped it off with a 40-yard interception for the third TD. Other key performers during the BSL game were: Bryan Betz, Penny Cox, Thomas Deogracias, Jeremy Fountain, Derrick Gebbia, Josh Gibson, Mark Hall, J.P. Hust, Kendrick Lewis and Donald Richard.

The second game of the day against Pearl River Central ended, 32-12, in favor of the Bulldogs. It was their fourth victory of the season, leaving them 4-1 overall and 2-1 in conference play.

Key performers during the Pearl River Central game were: Emmett Acker, Joseph Bates, Walter Bolden, Nicholas Deal, Peter Dulworth, Brandon Ellis, Kenny Fowler, Frank Hesse, James Holden, Cory Thompson, Christopher Thompson, Robert Sams and Nathan Threat.

Baum expressed appreciation to assistant coaches Tyrone Fountain, J.D. Ellis and Mike Peterson.

CLUBS, AUXILIARIES

Bay-Waveland Garden Club

Bay-Waveland Garden Club members enjoyed a picnic at the home of Mr. John Bobinger on North Beach Blvd.

President, Mrs. Donald Lowe called the meeting to order. Devotions were given by Mrs. Lelyn Nybo, and Lowe led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mrs. Thomas Tompkins read minutes and gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. John Brauner gave a very interesting and funny talk on the state bird, the mockingbird.

Mrs. S. P. Cucullu reported 20 members and two guests in attendance. Mrs. Judy Ross from Michigan was introduced by Mrs. David Los Calzo, and Mrs. Myrtle Signorelli was a guest of Mrs. George Baud.

President Lowe reported on Coast Council meeting and that the Club had taken second place award for scrapbook. She also announced that one of the club's past presidents, Mrs. Gordon J. Gleim (Jean) had passed away.

Garden of the Month for Bay St. Louis went to Harold and Fern Finnan at 602 Beyer Street in Waveland, to Mr. and Mrs. Eldon J. Gilly at 115 Grosvenor Place, and Commercial Beautification to Weaver's Frame Studio at 212-A Main Street in Bay St. Louis.

Mrs. Julian Lorenzen introduced her hostesses, Mrs. Fred Burkhardt and Mrs. E. Burton Kemp.

Mrs. John Holmes introduced Mrs. Joseph Finley and Mrs. Jan Brameyer. Mrs. Finley gave the history on Bonsai and then a workshop. Members had a previous workshop and had made their Bonsai containers and at the last meeting brought plants to plant.

The first meeting of the new year was called to order by Bay-Waveland Garden Club president, Mrs. Donald Lowe.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Klaus Kueck.

Mrs. Clarence Ladner gave a talk on attracting birds to your yard. She said to be sure you have water, and told of inexpensive ways, like using lids of garbage cans or saucers from flower pots for bird baths.

Mrs. John Holmes attended the "Litter-Free by '93" meeting earlier in the day and reported on "Clean the Beach Day" Saturday, Sept. 19 from 9 a.m. to noon. T-shirts with the slogan can be purchased at the chamber of commerce or through Mrs. Eleanor McCandless at 467-3911. She reported signs are being placed at stores each month for businesses who have improved their area. Recycling bins will be placed again at stores and will be announced later.

Harrison County Salon
218 — 8/40

The Harrison County Salon 218 — 8/40 held its installation of partners October 8, 1992, at the American Legion Post 119 on Courthouse Road in Gulfport. Past Departmental Chapeau Gladys Bassett of Pascagoula was the installing partner. Acting as Concierge was Bernice Escher.

Partners installed were: Janet Aime, petit chapeau; Marius Ladner, demi chapeau; Inez Bovis, demi chapeau deuxième; Betty Lou Reyer, secretaire; Doris Mahalak, caissiere; Ruth Powers, archiviste; Jackie Buffin, aumoniere; Mimi Nihart, concierge; Beatrice Ladner, surentendante; Hazel Brown, avocate; Lucille Boudreaux, pouvoir.

Committee chairmen installed were: Barbara Russo, children and youth; Jean Eady, constitution and bylaws; Anna Gayaut, finance; with Lou Wilkerson and Bessie Ladner; Beatrice Ladner and Hazel Breland, fun and fellowship; Jackie Buffin, nurses scholarship; Marius Ladner, partnership; with Evelyn Burns and Ted Melvin; Lucille Boudreaux, publicity; Doris Mahalak and Betty Lou Reyer, rituals and emblems; Genevieve Cole, National Jewish Center.

Outgoing Chapeau Lucille Boudreaux honored all present and past departmental chapeaux from Salon 218. Each one was given roses and a chapeau hat. Carnation corsages were presented to incoming officers.

Past deceased partners were honored in memorials, and the altar was adorned with white carnations. The altar was covered with a white cloth and a centerpiece of red carnations and five lit red candles.

Past Chapeau Boudreaux was presented with the past chapeau pin by installing partner officer Gladys Bassett.

New Chapeau Janet Aime was presented the gavel of leadership for 1992-93 and congratulated.

A buffet supper followed the ceremony.

The next meeting of the Partnership will be Thursday, Oct. 22, 7 p.m., at the Post 119 home.

Dues of $11 are now due. Members are encouraged to turn them in as soon as possible.

Harrison-Hancock
Legal Secretaries

The Harrison-Hancock Legal Secretaries Association held its monthly meeting Thursday, Oct. 8 at the Harrison County Courthouse in Gulfport.

The presentation for this month was on a more relaxed note with a fashion presentation by BJ's Puzzles of Long Beach which features ladies apparel made in Mississippi. There were also tips on beauty and coordinating colors to flatter the individual.

Door prizes were won by Patsy Pannell, Glenda O'Neal, Deborah Clawson and Samantha Leatherman.

Meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month at 5:30 p.m. at the Gulfport Courthouse, second floor, Chancery Court No. 1.

The association features a different speaker and topic each month and welcomes all guests. Information on membership can be obtained by contacting Cheryl Crayden at 863-6101.

Harvey to address
HCTGA meeting

Paul Harvey, Republican candidate for the Fifth Congressional District of Mississippi, will be the featured speaker at the Hancock County Tourism & Gaming Association's (T&G) next monthly meeting, 8 a.m., Thursday, Oct. 22, at the Waveland Resort Inn.

Harvey, a retired Major General, served in the United States Air Force on active duty for 32 years. Earning his wings from the Air Force in 1961, he served his country as a combat pilot in the Republic of Vietnam, where he flew more than 160 combat missions.

He later held a number of command and staff positions throughout the world, including Commander of Strategic and Tactical Airlift Forces throughout Europe, Africa and the Middle East.

In 1988, Harvey took command of Keesler Technical Training Center on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, where he served until his retirement.

His military service decorations for his outstanding performance include the Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, Air Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal and the Republic of Vietnam Honor Medical First Class.

There will be a question-and-answer session following General Harvey's presentation.

Members and guests are encouraged to attend.

Paul Harvey

American Legion Auxiliary
Unit 139

The monthly meeting of the Clement R. Bontemps American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 139, was Monday, Oct. 12, at the Legion home.

President Susan Piazza opened the meeting; color-bearers Hazel Wohlschlegel and Roslyn Weathers advanced the colors; chaplain Ursula Favre read the opening prayers, followed by a moment of silent prayer for ailing and deceased members.

Pro tem secretary Margaret Prevou read the minutes of the previous meeting and treasurer Bobby Tomlinson gave a report.

Piazza called on the various committees to give their reports on their activities during the month. Membership Mattie North asked for cooperation of members to make 'our goal' as soon as possible.

VAWS Shirley Clemons spoke on the success of our last bonco party and is looking forward to Wednesday, Oct. 21 for an even more successful party at the Legion Home. Except for beer, there will be free refreshments on hand. She also requested that members turn in their Christmas gifts for the Veterans' gift shop at the November meeting as Christmas is just around the corner.

Chaplain Ursula Favre reported on the many get-well and sympathy cards that were sent to our ailing and bereaved families. Constitution and by-laws Margaret Prevou called attention to some of the changes made, and handed out copies to the members present. She requested that the members read them so that they would understand the functions and the role that the auxiliary plays in the scheme of things.

Children and Youth Hazel Wohlschlegel asked for donations of cookies, cupcakes, and brownies, for the annual Halloween Party that we co-sponsor with the Hancock Medical Center on Halloween eve, this year on Saturday, Oct. 31, at the Hancock Medical Center. We expect the parents of 'little people' to bring them, with their trick or treat goodies, at this time, and enjoy our trick or treat.

Americanism Janell Necaie spoke on the Veterans Day activity that is planned for November 11. More will be discussed at the Nov. 9 meeting.

National Security Gertrude Duthu told of sending out thank-you cards to the many people who helped during Hurricane Andrew. Community Service Roslyn Weathers reported that they brought much welcomed clothing to the VA hospital and Women's Shelter, and thanked the members for their help. Refreshments were then served.

POLL WORKER TRAINING CLASS

A companion's words of persuasion are effective.
—Homer

YOU CAN BE A LIVING EXAMPLE OF YOUR FAITH TO OTHERS

To paraphrase a famous expression, one radiant smile can be worth more than a thousand words; especially when you're trying to show someone the benefits of faith. Perhaps this person has never thought about it or been affiliated with any House of Worship, and could be persuaded to accompany you to a service at yours. You may wonder how convincing you can be if you have some problems, such as health or financial; but if the other person is aware of them, this could make you all the more believable. We all have problems of one kind or another, and it's how we cope with them that really counts. The fact that you do seek God's guidance in solving your problems, while facing the world with a smile, may be the most impressive argument on behalf of faith that you can give.

Chapter 1 computer program

Ruth E. Jones, Learning consultant, explains the Take Home Computer Program to a group of parents whose children are in the Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District's Chapter 1 program. Chapter 1 is a federal program which offers supplemental instruction in reading and mathematics to students. The Take Home Computer Program allows parents to become involved in their child's education by giving families an opportunity to use different types of computer lessons and printed materials at home. The program's disks and activity books cover lessons in reading, language arts, math and study skills, as well as enrichment materials designed to provide a fun learning experience for the child. The program is a non-profit, non-commercial program. The program's software are distributed to individual families. The families are responsible for maintaining the computers at the end of their program cycle. (Echo staff photo by Traci Bonney)
